

"TARHEELS" WILL BE ROYALLY WELCOMED

North Carolinians Living in Richmond Will Entertain Governor Craig.

MESSAGE IS SENT TO TEAM
Dr. J. Allison Hodges Is Elected President of North Carolina Society of Richmond—Other Officers Are Elected and Committees Named.

When the hosts of "Tarheels," headed by Governor Locke Craig and members of his staff, come to Richmond Thursday to witness the annual gridiron struggle between the North Carolina and South Carolina teams, they will be royally welcomed and so heartily will they be welcomed that many of them will be tempted to abandon the back-home portion of their tickets. Plans for the reception and entertainment of the "down-homers" were enthusiastically discussed last night at a meeting of North Carolinians who are residents of Richmond held in the Chamber of Commerce Building.

North Carolinians here will cooperate in every way with the plans of Governor Henry C. Stuart and his staff for entertaining the North Carolina Governor and other officials. Great enthusiasm was shown in the meeting, and before adjournment a permanent North Carolina society for natives of that State living in Richmond was organized. Committees appointed last night will submit reports at a meeting of North Carolinians to be held on Monday night at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce.

LITCHFIELD ACTS AS TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

The meeting was called to order by Henry E. Litchfield, temporary chairman, with Norman H. Johnson, acting secretary. Suggestions were invited by the chairman, and several brief speeches were made. Although Governor Craig and his staff will be met at the station upon their arrival in Richmond by Governor Stuart and other Virginia officials, the following delegation of North Carolinians were named to aid in the reception of the visiting executive and his officers: H. T. Carroll, Richard Smith, Henry E. Litchfield, Dr. J. Allison Hodges, Dr. J. W. Ennett, Dr. J. K. Hall, and Albert Kramer. While these men will compose a general reception committee, every North Carolinian living in Richmond has been invited to help receive and entertain the visitors.

A committee, with Norman H. Johnson chairman, was appointed to secure automobiles to be used in conveying the visitors about the city. A committee of one to secure suitable emblems or badges to be worn by North Carolinians on Thanksgiving Day.

At the suggestion of Dr. J. Allison Hodges, it was decided to hold a reception for the Governors and members of their staffs at the performance of Anna Pavlova at the Academy of Music next Thursday night. The following committees were authorized: a committee to hold a reception for the Governors and members of their staffs; a committee to hold a reception for the Governors and members of their staffs; a committee to hold a reception for the Governors and members of their staffs.

When motion was made to organize a permanent North Carolina Society in Richmond, Dr. J. Allison Hodges was unanimously elected president of the organization. Other officers elected were Henry E. Litchfield, first vice-president; Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, second vice-president; Norman H. Johnson, secretary; and Herbert W. Jackson, treasurer. The following committee to frame a constitution and set of by-laws for the organization, and to report at a meeting to be held the second week in December, was appointed: Richard Smith, chairman; George C. Gregory, Dr. Paul V. Anderson, and Kent Rawley.

Considering the fact that the North Carolinians have so often suffered defeat on the gridiron here at the hands of the Virginians, the sentiment expressed in the meeting last night regarding the probable outcome of the approaching struggle was remarkably optimistic.

COUNCIL CALLED

Will Meet Monday to Act on Emergency Relief for Pine Camp.

Pursuant to a call issued yesterday by President Peters, of the Common Council, that body will meet at 8 o'clock Monday night to take action upon several measures of an emergency character. On the special docket will be the resolution introduced by the Finance Committee, appropriating $1,750 for the immediate relief of Pine Camp. The resolution will be passed unanimously.

The Common Council will act also upon the Finance Committee's ordinance appropriating $35,000 for the general purpose of meeting the city's immediate obligations. The measure was passed by the Board of Aldermen at its last meeting and will come up for concurrence.

Another resolution which will be before the special meeting provides for the adjustment of the school debts assumed by the city in connection with the annexation of the school district. The Finance Committee, on this score, $27,500 in cash, and will take over bonds and issue demand notes for the balance. The total debt assumed by the city in this connection is $255,000.

Snow Falling at Bristol

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BRISTOL, Va., November 19.—For two hours a blinding snow storm prevailed here to-night. In some places it lay in heavy snow fall throughout South-west Virginia and East Tennessee.

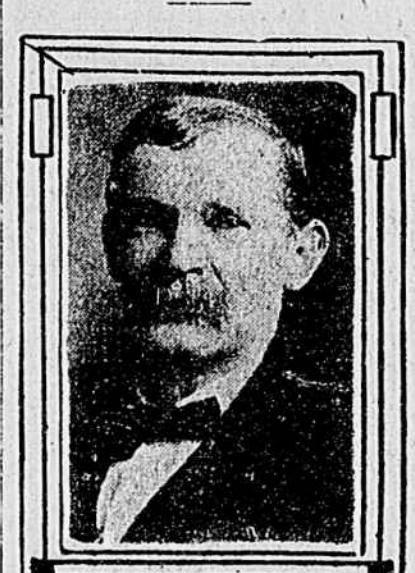

Negro Found Dead

The body of Louis Burton, colored, fifty-seven years old, was yesterday afternoon discovered in the woods near the man's home, 720 North Thirtieth Street. Coroner Taylor, who viewed the remains, said heart failure caused the death of the man.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION OPENS ANNUAL MEETING

Robert D. Garland Re-Elected President, and Ministers and Delegates Are Welcomed.

PROMINENT VISITORS PRESENT
Trustees of Orphanage at Salem Report That Institution Eventually Will Receive About $150,000 From Estate of Late T. H. Ellett.

ROBERT D. GARLAND.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BRISTOL, Va., November 19.—With about 300 ministers and lay delegates present, representing most of the Baptist churches in the State, the Baptist General Association of Virginia opened its ninety-first annual session in the handsome new First Baptist Church here at 7:30 o'clock to-night.

The Bristol church had made every preparation to give the delegates a cordial welcome and hospitable entertainment. This is the first meeting of the association here in fourteen years, and since that time the Baptist denomination has taken great strides forward in Bristol and Southwest Virginia, as it has in the State. In his response to the address of welcome, Dr. H. H. Pitt, editor of the Religious Herald, referred significantly to the growth of the association and its influence in sixteen years. He was advised by Treasurer B. A. Jacobs that the present as compared with sixteen years ago reveals that the association now contributes more to one of its eight special charges than it then appropriated for all of them.

The opening prayer service was conducted by President Robert D. Garland, of Richmond. The scriptural lesson was read by Dr. W. W. Hamilton, of Lynchburg, who drew pointed conclusions from the reading. This was followed by the annual sermon by the Rev. John J. Wicker, of Richmond, whose subject was "Vision and Victory." The discourse was in the nature of a moral from the present European war. Dr. Wicker made it plain that, in his opinion, the present slaughter in Europe cannot be justified from a Christian viewpoint. Only false theology in his opinion could justify such slaughter. "It is the savage, and not the saved element in man," he declared, "that goes to war. It is a lack of faith, a lack of faith." "We ought," he asserted, "to stop preparing to kill men and get ready to save men." He commented with admiration upon the spirit of Woodrow Wilson, who he said was a moral man, a man of vision and victory. Only false theology in his opinion could justify such slaughter. RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT

Robert D. Garland was re-elected president of the association by acclamation, and other officers were chosen as follows: vice-presidents, R. A. Williams, of Fredericksburg; F. P. Berkeley, of Covington; M. F. Sanford, of Chatham; and H. D. Dickey, of Bristol; secretary, Hugh C. Smith, of Richmond; treasurer, D. A. Jacob, re-elected; auditor, E. M. Long.

Several prominent visitors were introduced and made brief talks, after which adjournment was taken until 9:30 o'clock Friday morning. The trustees of the Baptist Orphanage of Virginia, located at Salem, held their annual meeting here to-day, with President P. H. Martin presiding. Reports were read by the superintendent and treasurer showing conditions at the home, which now has the care of 190 children. The most interesting development at this meeting was the report of Richard Montague, executor of the estate of the late T. H. Ellett, of Richmond, which indicated that the orphanage would eventually receive from the Ellett estate about $150,000, which money will be at the disposal of the trustees for such purposes as the board may desire to use.

TRAFFIC LAW TO BE STRICTLY ENFORCED

Arrests Will Be Made, Not Only Where Traffic Police Are Located, but Wherever Law Is Violated.

Fourteen alleged violators of the city traffic ordinance were yesterday summoned to appear in Police Court as the first step of a campaign which Mayor Werner inaugurated against those who persist in violating this ordinance. The list of those summoned to court is as follows: Wilson Wiley, 221 East Clay Street; W. G. Tigler, 2257 Floyd Avenue; M. Manuel, R. P. D. No. 3; Honored County; Gaskins Thomas, Lakeside Road; R. W. Jenkins, 1102 East Main Street; L. W. Godsey, 718 East Cary Street; Woodward, 1102 East Cary Street; Lee White, 1005 East Charlty Street; Henry P. St. Peter Street; Ed. Lilly, 1411½ West Leigh Street; Thomas E. Stager, Mill Road; Henry Henderson, 554 North Tenth Street; Joseph Farmer, Lee Market; Mrs. R. O. Bell, 500 Seminary Avenue.

During the week of November 6 the police made brief talks, after which adjournment was taken until 9:30 o'clock Friday morning. The trustees of the Baptist Orphanage of Virginia, located at Salem, held their annual meeting here to-day, with President P. H. Martin presiding. Reports were read by the superintendent and treasurer showing conditions at the home, which now has the care of 190 children. "There is nothing new in the rules," said Mayor Werner, "and the public has no more time after time as to what is expected of it. We have done our best to avoid bringing persons who violate the rules before the courts, but will do so in the future in every case where the regulations are not observed." Violations have been especially noticed at corners where there is no regular traffic officer, drivers seeming to assume license at such points to go as they please.

SEVERAL BANKS REQUEST LOWER DISCOUNT RATE

Districts Asking Federal Reserve Board to Make Change Understood to Be in South and West.

WASHINGTON, November 19.—Although redcounting operations by Federal reserve banks in three days have amounted to only a few million dollars, several banks already have requested the Federal Reserve Board for permission to lower the rates. It was understood the districts asking a lower rate are in the South and West.

The board has no present intention of changing the rates, and such action is not likely until all reserves of member banks required at this time have been transferred to the reserve bank vaults. The board has an anxious desire to see the banks in a position that all the first instalment of reserves be deposited by member banks in gold or other money, and that advantage be not taken of the provision of the act by which reserves may be transferred in the shape of redcounted commercial paper—a transfer of credit which adds nothing to the actual cash of the reserve banks or its potential loaning power. For this reason the redcount rate was put about on the level of the discount rate, so there has been little advantage to banks to pass on their paper.

The board has about concluded not to tax Federal reserve notes. This will make them more attractive to banks who now have in their possession quantities of emergency currency, and possibly clearing-house certificates, both subject to high taxes or interest charges.

Emergency currency and the certificates are being retired rapidly, and, although financial observers here say there is no need for more circulation, banks which give up their emergency notes to avoid payment of further taxes may feel the need of other notes, and the freedom of circulation of Federal notes may bring them into circulation.

SCOTTISH RITE CLOSING ITS LARGEST REUNION

Thirty-First and Thirty-Second Degrees Are Celebrated by Annual Banquet.

With the largest attendance at a fall reunion in the history of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, the meeting last night of Dalcho Consistory brought to a close the reunion, which has been going on since Monday. An elaborate banquet was participated in by 300 members of the lodges of Richmond, including members from Norfolk, Newport News, Roanoke and other parts of the State.

During the evening appropriate addresses were made by Henry S. Hutzler, Rev. J. A. Wilm, R. S. Crump and others. The master of Dalcho, L. B. Sleight, presided.

The closing festivities were preceded by the conferring of the consistory degrees, the thirty-first and thirty-second. Among those taking part in the ceremonial session, in addition to the president, were James H. Price, J. J. Mattern, M. A. Scyle, Rev. James Buchanan, Robert R. Crump, James J. Sutton, W. P. Richardson, Beverly C. Lewis, Jr., George E. Robinson, Robert T. Blinn, J. G. Hankins, S. Pettit, D. C. Kennedy, J. Edward Rose, Jr. and J. L. Strain. W. D. Sheppard, Ralph J. Levy, Dr. C. H. Tuid and Edward W. Brody.

Among the out-of-town members present were Benjamin Blocke, Pulaski; M. J. Greenwood and J. F. Hodges, Norfolk; Harry Roberts, Emporia, and 4 F. Hargis, Newport News.

ROBERT J. BURDETTE DIES AT PASADENA HOME

Noted Humorist, Preacher and Author Passes Away After Two Years' Illness.

REMAINS FUN-LOVING TO LAST
At Age of Sixty Years Is Called to Pastorate of Los Angeles Church. Contributions and Lectures Make Him Widely Known.

PASADENA, CAL., November 19.—Robert J. Burdette, preacher, author and humorist, died at his home here at 2 o'clock this morning. He had been ill for nearly two years, and for the last week had been in a state of coma.

Robert J. Burdette began cultivating good humor, obscurely in Peoria, Ill., forty years ago, when he spent part of his days at a desk on the Peoria Transcript trying to "think," as he himself once related, "of pleasant things to tell the folks when I went home at night." His audience of "folks" then was Carrie Garrett, the Peoria girl he had married a short time before, while she lay supposedly on her death bed, but who lived, and though an invalid for life, became immortalized by her husband as "Her Little Serene Happiness." It was she who encouraged him to sow his humor in wider fields. At her bedside Burdette became prolific with fun-making contributions to the Burlington, Ia., Hawkeye, and through these he became famous the country over as "The Burlington Hawkeye Man."

The little invalid wife encouraged him, too, to try the lecture field. "She kept me at it," said Burdette, "and in due time we had a lecture on our hands—The Rise and Fall of the mustache." Burdette insisted on trying the lecture first in Keokuk—"for Keokuk hated Burlington." And if he succeeded there he would know that it was good. "Even Keokuk applauded. The whole United States later did the same. He became a sort of itinerant preacher."

At sixty, ten years ago, Mr. Burdette was called to the permanent pastorate of the Temple Baptist Church of Los Angeles, Cal.

LATTER PART OF HIS LIFE SPENT IN CALIFORNIA

Although Burdette's original home was in Greensboro, Pa., where he was born in 1844, the latter part of his life was spent in California. At Sunny Crest, Pasadena, he had a spacious house with broad verandas. His first wife had died after fifteen years of encouragement to him, during which she had traveled all over the country with him. In 1899 he married Mrs. Clara B. Baker, of Pasadena.

A fugitive instance of Burdette's rollicking humor was a letter home to his flock in Los Angeles during his first trip to Europe. He dated the letter from "some distance out in the damp," and said, in part:

"The scenery along this route, although somewhat monotonous, is splendidly irrigated. But it seems too early for the growing crops. Nothing has come up yet, except on shipboard, and that has gone overboard. The route is not nearly so populous as the Sante Fe trail over the desert. We have just two kinds of days—the days we see a ship and the days we don't." The veteran humorist found fun in everything. While he was forced to abandon it in the pulpit, largely because of the reputation he had made for fun-making, he agreed with Henry Ward Beecher that a joke in the pulpit was not at all out of place. It was, as Beecher said, "When you are fighting the devil, shoot him with anything."

Burdette died with the conviction that there was not only just as much fun in the world to-day as ever, but "a great deal more because," as he said, "there are more people in it, and people are the funniest things on this side of the grave."

CITY RECEIVES BILLS FOR ANNEXED TERRITORY

Work Under Contract at Time of Union Announced by City Auditor to Go Over Accounts.

The Administrative Board yesterday passed a resolution requesting the Council to appropriate $30,000 to take care of work in progress on accounts under existing contracts. In the annexed territory. While the city is obligated by the terms of annexation to assume responsibility for the payment of this work, there are no funds at the disposal of the board for this purpose.

City Engineer Rolling appeared before the board with a portfolio of bills for construction work and supplies in the annexed territory, contracted for before annexation. None of the bills, he pointed out, had official endorsement, and he was unwilling on his own responsibility to certify their correctness to the City Auditor.

The bills were referred to the City Auditor, who is clothed with authority by the charter to pass upon their validity. It is understood that the matter of the unpaid bills presents no peculiar complication, and that they will be paid as soon as provision for their payment is made by the Council.

Shooting Pistol in Street

A warrant was last night entered against Thomas Owens, colored, now in jail on another charge, in which the negro is charged with being disorderly and shooting a pistol in the street. This warrant was sworn out by Bicycle Policeman Leiss.

Colored Woman Charged With Theft

Flea Palmer, colored, was last night arrested on a warrant by Detective Bryant and Policemen Flournoy and Smallwood, charged with the theft of a $12.50 suit from H. Goldwater & Sons. Later an additional warrant charging her with the theft of a 43 suit of boys' clothes from Henry Humes was entered against her. This suit was recovered by the officers when they executed a search warrant on the house at 611 West Leigh Street.

Charged With Stealing Castings

William Jackson, colored, was last night arrested by Detective Bryant, charged with stealing $135 worth of steel castings from the Treadwell Iron Works. The castings were recovered by the detective, and Jackson will be arraigned on the larceny charge in Police Court to-day.

Dinner at Barton Heights

The Senior Philanthra Class of the Barton Heights Baptist Church is holding a three-day entertainment and bazaar, the proceeds of which will be used for the Sunday school. The entertainment, which is held at the church, was opened last night, and a musical program was rendered. It will be continued to-day and to-morrow between the hours of 3 and 11 o'clock.

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers" said one of the greatest thinkers this country ever produced.

Says the Lawyer:
"When a lawyer loses his nerve in front of the jury, his client had better plead guilty. That's why I always have a quiet, calming chew of PICNIC TWIST before court opens."

"While a man's chewing PICNIC TWIST he's thinking, not talking, and thinking wins more cases than oratory. And speaking of thinking—show me a jury of tobacco chewers and I'll show you a jury that will decide according to the law and the evidence."

PICNIC TWIST is the tobacco for men who like a soothing, sweet, long-lasting chew that won't get on your nerves, or cause them to get back at you.

The mild, mellow part of the leaf that goes into PICNIC TWIST makes it the sort of chew you'll like better than any dark, "heavy" tobacco you ever tried. And it will like you better.
